United States District Court

WESTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN

ORDER OF DETENTION UNITED STATES OF AMERICA PENDING TRIAL Michael John Modena Case Number: 1:09 MJ 304 In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts require the detention of the defendant pending trial in this case. Part I – Findings of Fact (1) The defendant is charged with an offense described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1) and has been convicted of a federal offense state or local offense that would have been a federal offense if a circumstance giving rise to federal jurisdiction had existed – that is a crime of violence as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 3156(a)(4). an offense for which the maximum sentence is life imprisonment or death. an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in A felony that was committed after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior federal offenses described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1)(A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses. (2) The offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local offense. (3) A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the date of conviction release of the defendant from imprisonment for the offense described in finding (1). Findings Nos. (1),(2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of (an) other person(s) and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption. Alternate Findings (A) (1) There is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in the Controlled Substances Act ☐ under 18 U.S.C. § 924(c). (2) The defendant has not rebutted the presumption established by finding (1) that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community. Alternate Findings (B) (1) There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear. (2) There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community. Part II - Written Statement of Reasons for Detention I find that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establish by a preponderance of the evidence that defendant is charged with being a felon in possession of a firearm. He was convicted in this court in 2000 of conspiracy to violate the income tax laws. He was sentenced to 60 months incarceration, followed by 3 years of supervised release. On July 2, 2005, Judge Bell revoked supervision and sentenced defendant to a new period of 2 years in custody, finding that he had violated the conditions of supervision. Defendant also has a conviction for domestic assault. Execution of a search warrant in October of last year by state officers in an unrelated case uncovered firearms in defendant's home. When officers attempted to execute arrest warrants for defendant on January 22, 2009 arising from this charge, he sped away and led offers on a car chase through the Village of Pentwater. He surrendered only when officers drew their weapons. Defendant's failure to conform to the conditions of supervised release and his recent attempts to flee and elude officers demonstrate that he will not abide by conditions of bond. Part III - Directions Regarding Detention The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.
